My condolences to the family - I didn't know your dad however you can always tell what kind of man he is by the children he has raised. From where I sit he did a great job.....love to all.

Tribute from Lesley Reichert

Relation: family friend

Armand had a zest for life and could light up a room with his laughter. He shared his love willingly with his family and friends and was a terrific neighbour. My life was certainly enriched by knowing him and growing up with his family.
