Tribute from Tracey Wenberg

Relation: Father

No day will ever be the same again without you. A piece of me is gone forever and what is left feels broken. Rest in peace knowing that you were a kind, loving, honourable, funny, strong and generous father, husband, grandfather, friend and hero. I will love you forever dad. xoxo

Tribute from Eva Chow

Relation: Am friends with daughter

May you rest in peace after living a full and rewarding life. Thank you for your wonderful family.

Tribute from Wendy Wenberg

Relation: He was my husband of 50+ years

I just want everyone to know that during his time in care, whereas he could not communicate verbally, he accomplished two very important moments in our lives. On April 6, we celebrated our 50 wedding anniversary, and on May 11 he was able to give our daughter away in marriage. Hon, I miss you so much. Love forever, Wendy

Tribute from Sandy Meyerson

Relation: Husband of my cousin Wendy

Sending you, dear Wendy and all your family hugs and kisses and letting you know that you are our thoughts and prayers at this most difficult time. Your love and devotion to Keith throughout all his years on earth did not go unnoticed by him. He knew he was loved. He gave love and he received loved. He is in a good place now; no more pain, and suffering. He has been set free and he is happy and living his life in a new realm. Just like a traveler who has left one country only to arrive in another country. We may not see him, but his spirit is alive and he will watch over all of you. Love is everlasting. God Bless you all.

Tribute from Andrea Holm Allingham

Relation: family friend

Though we have lived far away formany years, Keith was always my hero. In the 70s my ex-husband became violent and I went to Keith and Wendy's for help. Keith stood up to my ex and ensured that I and my children were safe. For that I am eternally grateful. Keith was a great guy and I am so sorry that he is gone.

Tribute from Terry Schur

Relation: Friend

Keith and his wife Wendy were our friends and neighbors for 7 years, I remember Keith being such a loving caring person. My fondest memory of him is when his grand daughter was visiting he was always out front playing with her, and when it snowed he would pull her on the sled. I admired how much he loved his family.. You will be missed Keith.

Tribute from Dave Kent

Relation: Friend/co worker

Tribute from Jeff Wenberg

Relation: Father

The words have all been said already, son, husband, father, grandfather, friend and hero. Hope Al was waiting!

Tribute from Peter Harston

Relation: Father-in-law

I am fortunate to have had Keith as a father-in-law. I choose to remember him as a vibrant, strong and curious man -- a firefighter, truck driver, outdoorsman and a wonderful father to my wife and grandfather to Brooke. To say he is missed is a tremendous understatement. Having known him is an honour and a priviledge -- truly a blessing. Thank you, Keith. You were a man among men.

Tribute from Margaret Elder

Tribute from Wendy Wenberg

Relation: Wife

Hi Hon, Valentine's day is fast approaching and although we never really went all out, it is a significant day for all of us. It will be 6 months that you left us. We all miss you so much. I placed a picture of our last Christmas together, the whole family. I miss you so much and shed tears every day remembering all the good times we had together. It's very lonely, I so wish you were still here, but I know you are whole again, and that makes me feel a bit better. Love you so much,

Tribute from Wendy Wenberg

Relation: Husband

Hon, it's been one year today that you left us, and it isn't really getting any easier. I miss you every waking hour. We knew each other since 1958 and were married for 50 years, so there is a real void in my heart. There are times I cry because something has triggered a wonderful memory and I want to share it with you, but you are not here. I think about you all the time and the happy times we shared. I know you are in a better place and I hope you are happy. Love you always, Wendy

Relation: Keith was my husband

Well hon, today, Nov. 18, would be your 75th birthday. You have caught up to me. You always enjoyed telling people that I robbed the cradle. I sure wish you were here. You are missed by all of us. I don't think we will ever get over you not being here. I will always love you. Wendy
