Tribute from Patty Niezen

Relation: Cousin

Kristopher is my oldest cousin. Growing up, my family lived on the far side of Vancouver island, so we only saw Kristopher and the rest of the family when we made the trek to Abbotsford, which I can't remember being very often. Therefore, I never spent as much time with him growing up, but there is a certain memory that really sticks. My sister and I were young, probably under 10 when we came down for a visit. Kristopher was staying with Nana at the time. He always had a smile for us and made the time to start a conversation and ask us how we were doing. We got to hang out with him in his room at Nana's. I remember feeling super cool to be in a teenager's room. He let us try on his hockey gear and took the time to play with us. I remember at one point my sister smeared his deodorant all over her body and face (so hilarious at the time, now looking back it's kinda weird..) I think that's when our time hanging out in his room ended for the day. This is the Kristopher I'll remember: young and happy, kind, caring, and full of joy and love. My deepest condolences to those close to him. Sending lots of love and know that you are in my thoughts.

Kristopher's

Kris was Born with tons of energy..

I remember making these Great vegetarian sandwiches when Kris would stay overnight he must've been 10 years old at the time..

Also remembering the time when he was over at Nana's playing the organ at the age of 11 and 12 singing along with what he was playing with the beautiful falsetto voice.

Many time I would pick up Kris Keith and Ken and drive them to there destination, they would always be laughing together.

I do remember the time Kris and I went to the movies and he wanted an extra large popcorn and we both broke out laughing when he spilled all over the floor of the theater.

I loved Kris's appreciation for music there were times of struggle and times of laughing together that made our relationship, The times he came into the studio to recorded his music that was so close to his heart and brought the biggest smile to his face. His determination was very strong. The Time we had driving to Vancouver together, he wanted to spend a few days there to explore and perform his rap music so he did, and with the termination he drove all the way to Montreal in the middle of winter to explore....which is amazing to me and I remember him telling me on his return when he was standing out in this ice cold snowy winter day he thought he wouldn't make it through that day but a trucker pick them up.

and the adventures he had on top of Sumas mountain last summer at lost lake we're so good for him he was probably the happiest I've ever seen him and every time I would drive him up there we would have great conversations and talk about how beautiful it was up there, so many many times. He showed me the part of the world I never saw before that was in our backyard, he would drink fresh water from the stream and we would make a campfires and with these other people he met up there would help build a place to store his food. His state of mind.... it was absolutely beautiful to see and share.

Many times we would have deep conversations on spiritual matters that works great.

What I loved about Kris is that he would follow his dreams with such determination.....

I will always love you Kris, you are in the heavens and you are in my heart NOW....

Relation: Brother

Dear Kris, it's been a hard month for me knowing you have passed away, not a day has gone by that I haven't thought about you. growing up with you I had a lot of good times as well, such as you getting me into wrestling as well as gaming, I would always envy you when you got a playstation 1 back in the day. I've always loved you and that's never changed, you're always my brother and you'll always have a place in my heart. I hope you'll be up there watching over me as I eventually take on the world with my music and I hope you'll be watching over the entire family. It still doesn't seem real that you have left us and I wish I had one more last chance to say good bye and tell you that I love you. But I know you already know that I love you. I hope you're resting easy up there with Twelve & Sugar as well. love you bro :)
