Tribute from Pauline stanger

Relation: My brother in laws sister

Dear Vicky & family

I have never met you but I did meet your lovely mum and dad, when they stayed with Ingrid and Jim.

My name is Pauline and I am Ingrid's sister,

I am so sorry to hear the sad loss of your mum, such a shock and still so young,

But at least she has been reunited with her mother father and Jim, so is at peace now.

I was a face book friend of Liz. I am so very sorry Vicky and will be thinking of you all with sympathy, give my sympathy to your brothers and dad. It is such a sad loss to you all. Take care love Pauline and family xx

Tribute from Dawn and Steve MacRae

Relation: Friend from soccer days

To John and family, we are both so sorry to hear of Liz passing. It is always difficult to know what to say at times like this but hopefully it gives you comfort hearing from people.

The last time we bumped into you both was at Rowena's the day our daughter was getting married, that was nearly three years ago.

I will always remember Liz as a lovely lady with a ready smile and brilliant sense of humour. We had many laughs when all the children were young at the football games.

Thinking of you all

Dawn and Steve

Tribute from Myra Booth

Relation: Cousin

How very sad we are all feeling at the loss of our lovely cousin, Liz, and our thoughts go out to John, Vicki, Dale and Dea. We will remember the happy times we shared together in recent years, when Liz and John returned to Scotland for family reunions, weddings and special holidays - a trip round Europe only last year. Despite being away from Scotland for over 40 years, Liz never forgot her family or her roots, and would regularly write home informing us about her own family. With email, she then sent photos of family weddings and gatherings with her children and grandchildren, of whom she was especially proud. Liz was a chatty person, with a sunny personality who loved people, and she will be sadly missed, not only by us, but by all who knew her.

Love from cousins, Myra, Margaret, Betty, Mary, Tommy and Rona. Also Aunts Annie and Betty and Uncke Allan.

So very sorry to hear the very sad news, no words can express how we feel Jock, it was a pleasure to have known Liz and just so glad we were able to meet up with you both last year. Keep smiling as you remember all the good times, the hurt will ease but the memories will never fade. Love to you and all the family Jimmy and Sandra x

Tribute from michele johnson

Relation: ocotillo friend

John - so sorry & shocked to hear about Liz. She was always so vibrant & cheery. I wish we'd gotten to do more yoga. I'll miss her very much.

Take care. If there's anything you need us to do for you at OL let me know. Since Terry retired we're out here most the time.
