

REMEMBERING Gin Wing Lee

September 14, 1925 - February 5, 2013

Gin Wing Lee or Mrs. Doo, Gin Wing Lee was born in Nanhai, Guangdong, China. Her whole family moved to Hong Kong when Japan invaded China.

She was the second eldest in the family and she had one elder brother, who lived in Taiwan, two younger brothers in Hong Kong and two younger sisters, they both lived in China. Mrs. Doo married to Mr. Doo Daugh Chuen in 1946 and they have two sons Samuel (Ka Keung) and (Daniel Ka Ming) and three daughters Karen (Ka Mei), Eunice (Ka Ling) and Priscilla (Ka Yin).

Gin Wing Lee was a devoted Christian and she worked in Evangel Hospital in Hong Kong as a full time Bible woman focusing on personal evangelism for over a decade before she immigrated into Canada. She was a member of Burnaby Chinese Evangelical Free Church, where she had been an active member.

Gin Wing Lee had been suffering liver cancer for over a year and she finally passed away on February 5 at 2:40 p.m. with all her children around her sick bed. She is now home with our Lord that she loved to serve.
