Still so hard to believe you are gone Nikko. I will always remember you standing between two friends set to fight. You reminded them both that they were friends and friends don't hurt each other. Your unselfish heart will continue on in the lives of your family and everyone who had the privilage of knowing you. My heartfelt love and prayers go out to June Megan and those sweet little girls of you. You have planted many good seeds that will continue to grow into great oaks in your absence.
