

REMEMBERING
Samantha Lyn Marcellus

August 8, 1991 - September 5, 2014

Marcellus, Samantha Lyn passed away Friday September 5, 2014. She is predeceased by her uncle Luke Marcellus 1968-2006; and her grandpa John Marcellus 1948-2008. Samantha is survived by her sister Keysha Marcellus and her family; Marta Velarde and her family; and her boyfriend Max and his family. She also will be missed by many friends and coworkers who loved her and were a constant support for her. Samantha you will be dearly missed. Sam had a beautiful vibrant personality and loved to help people. She loved writing and playing her own music. She had a passion for learning and was studying to become a Health Care Aid. We will always remember her strength through so much adversity. Memorial Service to be held for Samantha on September 26, 2014 at 2:00 pm at the Seven Oaks Alliance Church located on 2575 Gladwin Rd Abbotsford. Everyone is invited to come, and share their memories and happiness she gave us all, there will be an open mic at the service. This service will be alcohol free. The family would like to thank the Calgary and Abbotsford police; the nurses and everyone from Royal Columbian Hospital.

